We are offering Year 1 and Year 2 opportunities as well as a CCER Residency!

Applications are competitive and seats are limited.

The goal is to convene like-minded educators who are committed to equity and justice in education for racially, culturally and linguistically diverse students while building a community of critically conscious educators who will turnkey information within their individual spheres of influence.

CCER series objectives:

a) Expand individual and collective critical consciousness;

b) Engage in a deep analysis of equity research; and

c) Develop/deepen an equity/racially just lens when crafting culturally responsive lessons/units.
